Resources Required:

- Technology: The following technology is required in order to access the course materials:
  - You will need a computer (on Windows-Minimum of PII 300 MHz; on Mac-G3 350 MHz) with broadband access (at least 256k) to the Internet.
  - You need to have a current browser in order to view the web-based course materials (Firefox is recommended). You also need to allow cookies, Java, and pop-ups.
  - You will need to download and install the free Real Player media player in order to view / listen to videos.
  - You will need to download Flash to view the presentations in their graphical format. (Most people already have this installed.)
  - You will also need a personal email address to receive course announcements.

Requirements:

- Orientation: Complete the orientation on Distance Learning at http://www.deanza.edu/distance/
- Reading and Review: Each week you should read the assigned chapter of the textbook and view the corresponding PowerPoint presentation.
- Business Plan Assignments

  1. Business Plan idea: Within the first two weeks of the term, you are required to identify and present your idea for a new business venture.

  2. Feasibility Analysis: Conduct a Feasibility Analysis during the third week. The deliverable for this section will be completion of Appendix 3.1 from your text.

  3. Written Plan & Presentation: From weeks 4-10, you will actually write your business plan. The Plan is a carefully prepared, cohesive document that contains a comprehensive analysis of the business that reflects the considerations of customers and competitors as well as the viewpoints of the investors and the entrepreneur.
The Plan should provide a framework for the systematic and comprehensive evaluation of the business idea that will enable the owner/manager to take an objective and critical view of the entire business. The plan should help the owner/manager deal with uncertainties, evaluate risks, and prepare contingencies enabling them to anticipate events, rather than react to them.

Note to Students with Disabilities

If you have a disability-related need for reasonable academic accommodations or services in this course, provide instructor with a Test Accommodation Verification Form (also known as a TAV form) from Disability Support Services (DSS) or the Educational Diagnostic Center (EDC). Students are expected to give five days’ notice of the need for accommodations. Students with disabilities can obtain a TAV form from their DSS counselor (864-8753—DSS main number) or EDC advisor (864-8839—EDC main number).

Distance Learning Center Hours of Operation

Monday to Thursday - 8:30 AM to 6:00 PM
Friday - 9:00 AM to 4:00 PM, when classes are in session.
Online Tutoring

Starting Spring 2014, De Anza College will provide all registered students with online tutoring service through Smarthinking. Online tutoring will be available in a wide variety of subjects, 24/7, to supplement on-campus tutoring that Student Success Center provides. Distance Learning is testing right now, and information is available at http://www.deanza.edu/studentsuccess/onlinetutoring.html

Dropping:

First two weeks of the term:

1. Instructor will drop students who do not complete assignments during the first two weeks of the course.
2. Instructor will also drop students who fail to take the Mid Term Exam.
3. You can also drop this class yourself during the first two weeks of the term. You must do so online. There will be no grade of record if you drop the class by the deadline.

Week three through eight:

You may drop online through MyPortal. You will be assigned a grade of "W". Failure to drop by the final deadline date will result in a grade assignment at the end of the quarter.
