Student success is the mission of De Anza College. One of the best ways to get involved is to join one or more of the clubs on campus. There are more than 60 clubs active on campus. Information on club meeting times and locations are available in the Club Glass Display Board (located in the lower level of the Campus Center) and the web site. If you don't see a club that interests you, start a new one. Pick up a "How to Start a New Club" packet at the Office of College Life (lower level of campus center) or at the webpage: deanza.edu/clubs; then, see an Inter Club Council Officer or the Inter Club Council Advisor (see ICC Contact Info below).
