Approval of Minutes

Wednesday, January 26th, 2010

Ismail Desouki moved to approve the minutes.
Brenda Kristie seconded the motion.
No objections.
The motion to approve the minutes passed.

Public Announcements

Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public announcements.

Senate Announcements

• Amira Farah announced that there were several opportunities for field hours, for example joining the 1st Thursday on Thursday, February 3rd, 2011, and holding Walk-In presentations. She said the list would be out until next Wednesday and that people interested in helping out should see her after the meeting.
• Ismail Desouki apologized for his rude behavior at the last meeting.
• Anmol Mirakhur announced that the bus passes are done.
• Sana Kathuria announced that the Student Service Day is coming up, and reminded that she had sent out a sign-up e-mail.
• Meera Suresh added that they also need people on February 23rd and asked the Senators to sign up for helping out.
• Taha Syed passed around a paper for people interested in the new flyers.
• Denny Jeon passed around a computer problems paper.
• Nevin Sarina announced that there will be classroom presentations for the Walk-In, and that he would send out the information about the Walk-In tonight per e-mail.
• Anaruth Hernandez announced that there are two things going on. First, today the men and women’s basketball team are playing against San Jose City College. Second, both the Diversity and Events Committee and the Environmental Sustainability Committee are working together on the Valentine’s Day event, which will include a photo booth and giveaway chocolate.
• Thomasina Russaw announced that we now entered a new month with big events coming up, and she wants to see everyone at the event this Thursday. She also pointed out a special event on February 14th, which includes a discussion on “black love”.
• Thoa Hoang thanked the Senators for voting her in and supporting her as the new Marketing Chair, and announced that she is ready to prove the people who doubt her wrong.
• Natasha Asar passed around a sign-up sheet for the upcoming fashion show, and asked everyone who wants to model or help out with setting up and the design to sign up.
• Ali Masood asked everyone who wants to help hold judicial board classroom presentations next week to sign up for it.
• Neesha Tambe apologized for being late and for her lack of professionalism at the last meeting.
Internal Reports

- Leo Nguyen from the Finance Committee reported that they were still working with the Honors program and CCP to improve them; Leo Nguyen and Brenda Kristie are in contact with CCP, and Ze-Kun Li and John “Jarren” Lu are working with the Honors program. They also assigned the Committee members to present the key items of the Budget Request in the Senate meeting, and postponed the ICC request of additional $3,000 for ICC Club Allocation (Account #41-54730) to fund future club events.
- Ali Masood from the Administration Committee reported that the request for the new printer has been submitted to the Finance Committee. The Administration Committee is working on the judicial board this week and made some amendments for next week’s agenda, which they will present at the next Senate meeting. They also approved the amendment for the new Office Policy, and now are working on the amendment on changing the office hours and field hours for everybody. Neesha Tambe will be working on an amendment to reform the point system, Brendan Fant and Ismail Desouki will have the final outline for the Parli Pro workshop by February 7th and it will be presented the following week at the Senate meeting. In addition, Gloria Cheung has taken over reviewing the computer issues from Denny Jeon.
- Anaruth Hernandez from the Environmental Sustainability Committee reported that the subcommittees were looking back on the rental programs, and that they were working with the clubs to make the February 14th event, including a free organic chocolate giveaway, a success. Further, all bus pass applicants picked up their bus passes.
- Thoa Hoang from the Marketing Committee reported that they went over the pluses and deltas of the Meet Your Senate Day, and that they talked about the new Senate brochure and keep working on it. They are also helping to advertise the food scholarship program.
- Lena Ghamrawi from the Diversity and Events Committee reported that there will be many events in February, which mean a lot of opportunities for field hours. The events will be the Walk-In on next Wednesday, February 9th, the Valentine’s Day event on February 14th, the Forum on February 16th, the Student Service Day on February 23rd, and the Benefit Concert on February 24th.
- Natasha from the Student Rights and Services Committee reported that the Forum will be on February 16th, and the Student Service Day will be on February 24th. The “Kirsh’s Kitchen” vouchers are in progress, and the scholarship details will be figured out in next 2 weeks. The businesses for discounts will be contacted by this Friday, and they are working with DARE against the Budget cuts.

External Reports

- Meera Suresh reported that the Instructional Planning and Budget Team discussed about the College’s future budget, and decided on programs that they will cut in 2012-13. In the best case, there will be $10,000,000 cut, and in the worst case it will be $22,000,000.
- Ali Masood added that the cases vary from $10,000,000 to $24,000,000 and could even get worse.
- Amira Farah reported that there was a serious tone on the Instructional Planning and Budget Team, since the French department at Foothill College has already been cut and...
De Anza College will be facing similar cuts in the 2012-2013 year. The Budget Team that decides which programs are going to be cut is meeting Tuesdays at 4pm in ADM109.

- Neesha Tambe reported that when the final beam for the Multicultural Center will be set, everyone gets to sign it and it will be part of the De Anza College history.

Senate Announcements

- Amira Farah announced that she will send out an e-mail with a list of classroom presentations for the Walk-In tonight, and asked the Senators to sign up.
- Meera Suresh announced that the Student Rights and Services Committee has been working on the food vouchers, and determined “Campus Kitchen” as the official name for the program. She also announced that the Senators could table on February 9th for field hours.
- Brenden Fant reminded the Senators to read the new Office Policy, and to come to the Administration Committee’s meeting Monday 6.30pm for questions.
- Anaruth Hernandez made the Senators aware of the Engaged Latina Activist Program, which will take place in Sacramento and is open to everyone. It includes civic involvement, leadership training and network opportunities. Interested people should talk to Pamela Jara for more information.
- Ali Masood announced that FACCC meets in March. Even though there are no fundings for attending it, the experience is a great opportunity to meet people from the Faculty Association and to talk about budget cuts.
- Ze-Kun Li announced that he created a task sheet about what each Committee and Senator is doing, which will be uploaded every week. It will serve as an accountability sheet and therefore every little detail should be on it. He also announced that there is a volunteer sheet for the Walk-In, and asked the Senators to help out since there are a lot of classes coming, and every hand is needed to help make the event happen.
