No objections.
The motion to approve the minutes passed by consensus.

Public Announcements
Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public announcements.

- Dora Ventura announced that the old ICC officers would like to thank everyone for their hard working dedication, and for everything the DASB did for ICC by bringing a cupcake cake. She enjoyed working with the DASB and introduced Matt Diaz as the new Chair of Programs, Kurt Pham as the new Chair of Marketing, and Dickson Ho as the new Chair of Finance. She also thanked Thomasina Russaw, Ze-Kun Li, Gloria Cheung, Edison Giang, and Lena Ghamrawi for their close relationship with ICC.
- Ladonna Yumori-Kaku announced that ICC had said fair well to their current officers and hello to the new ones, and that everyone hopefully enjoy the cup cakes.
- Ahmad Fayad announced that after the meeting today Amira Farah and him are going to do the challenge at Smoke Eaters, and that everyone should come.
- Neesha Tambe announced that Marlo Custodio created a very moving and touching tribute video for DeAnza College including students, faculty, and staff and that he wants to show it to the Senate after the meeting.
- LaDonna Yumori-Kaku announced that there will be 4 New Student Orientation classes this Friday and asked everyone who can help out at 1:15 or 1:30pm to let her know.

Senate Announcements

- Ahmad Fayad announced that most of the Committees did a good job keeping their minutes and agendas posted, only the Marketing Committee, the Student Rights and Services Committee and the Executive Committee need to catch up.
- Thomasina Russaw congratulated everyone on finishing their Winter term, and announced that it was a hard and exhausting quarter, but now everyone should relax over spring break, and have a new start afterwards.
- Amira Farah announced that they are still tabling this week, and that the DASB needs to step up and table from 10:30am to 6pm tomorrow.
- Nevin Sarina thanked everyone for helping out with the classroom presentations for the March in March.

Internal Reports

- Lena Ghamrawi from the Diversity and Events Committee reported that they talked about possible code changes to present them to the Senate in Spring and that they signed up for March 14th tabling. Now they want to focus on Spring events, the Buddy System, code
Meera Suresh from the Marketing Committee reported that they talked about the Benefit Concert and how to market it. Since there are more events coming up, such as the Student Service Day and the Student Forum, they are trying to gather everything together and have a launch party to inform everyone about the upcoming events.

Ali Masood from the Administration Committee thanked Ahmad Fayad for making the agenda and chairing the last meeting. He reported that Brenden had been approved as the Office Policy Director, and that they went over some projects like the Judicial Board, for which they need more applications than the four that they got so far. Brenden is working on the Office Cleanup and on implementing a system that each Committee has to clean different parts of office. They also talked about the Field Hours admission.

Leo Nguyen from Finance Committee reported that they finalized the Budget Stipulations, and that they had a really short meeting thanks to Arvind, who chaired the last meeting. The Budget Stipulations are up for approval in the Senate meeting today, and the first CCP Council meeting will be tomorrow at 1:30pm. The Finance Committee also received new budget requests from some athletics divisions, but since there are no more finance meetings this quarter, they will be discussed next quarter.

Natasha Asar from the student rights and Services Committee reported that they had a scholarships meeting last Friday, and thanked everyone who came to it. In the meeting, they came up with the whole application, and now they just need to come up with the two essay questions. They have the last Committee meeting this Friday to finish everything, and 17 discounts came in and got signed, and even though two more are pending the discounts are basically done.

Melanie Dovan from the Environmental Sustainability Committee reported that people sent in their proposals for each subcommittee regarding prospective events or programs, and that they all turned the proposals in on time. They chose 3 big events; the eco-pass, the bike program, and the Campus Cleanup. The bike program will be launched on April 4th, and for the Campus Cleanup they want better labeling on recycling and trash, and the cleanup is supposed to happen quarterly.

Anmol Mirakhur added that they also want to work with the faculty to educate the students about composting and recycling, and that they want to buy a compost bin. They also want to label bins better. He also reported that 9 bikes are already on campus, but they need to cover them against the rain.

External Reports

- Nevin Sarina reported that SSCCC met on February 26th, and that they elected their new chair Kevin Feliciano. The also will be having an Assembly on April 1st and April 2nd, and who wants to attend it should talk to John Cognetta. In May, our region will have a retreat for new Student Government Presidents and Executives to talk about the Student Government with people that will be elected next year. They also noticed that some schools cannot go to the March in March because do not have money for buses. SSCCC also wants to do a Higher Education Advocacy in April, and a Hands Across California event, where people lock hands to connect all Community Colleges throughout the state.
- Meera Suressh reported that IPBT went over what De Anza's core values are and what criteria they are using in order to evaluate each program and department. There were three questions that are: 1. What do we want to commit to in the long term? 2. How much can we reduce and still be effective? 3. What does the State want us to commit to? They realized that these questions are a bit vague and broad and further detailed questions are necessary. Other than establishing and analyzing the criteria for the program review, they developed a timeline of events and due dates for their annual program review. Today at 3:45pm, a few students as well as the Administration Committee and faculty will be discussing what DeAnza should focus on and what their core values are.

- Ahmad Fayad announced that the current ICC Chairs stepped down today and that the new Chairs moved into the office.

Public Announcements
Please note: Members of the public are limited to two minutes. The Senate cannot take action or respond to items during public announcements.
Senate Announcements

- Ali Masood reminded everyone to clean up their mail boxes, and apologized for being tired and slow today.
- Ze-Kun Li apologized for his outbreak earlier, and announced that he had been really stressed lately. He put a lot of work into his Office and Field Hours proposal, and wanted everyone to have a look at it. He also wants the Senate to approve this before next quarter, because he does not want to push a program for next year without trying it this year. He announced he was frustrated because he could not explain what he wants to do and could not get everyone’s opinions, because they stopped him from talking using parliamentary methods. He asked everyone for next time to please give themselves and others the chance to explain something they are passionate about.
- Nevin Sarina apologized for being disruptive, and announced that he is sick today. He asked everyone to help out with the classroom presentations tomorrow. He pointed out that having voted on the Office and Field Hours Amendment means that there will be a week that everyone only has 2 office and field hours, and that he hopes that the Administration Committee will presents a really good proposal for the definition of “Field Hours”.
- Neesha Tambe passed around evaluation sheets for everyone to fill out, and asked not to include herself or Ze-Kun Li and to give it back to her later today. She also will let everyone know what the Administration Committee’s meeting times will be for next quarter; this Monday it will be at 6:30pm.
- Sana Kathuria announced that since this is the last meeting until the 2nd week of the Spring quarter, she will be sending out e-mails to sign up for the Student Service Day and the Student Forum.
- Melanie Dovan reminded everyone to verify their Committee meetings by this week, and thanked Brenden for buying “green” wipes and cleaning up all computers and the whole office.
- Natasha Asar announced that since the DASB is also supporting the March in March, people from Campus Camp Wellstone want to go around in the buses to ask joining their program.
